MOST OF OUR MEALS CONTAIN SESAME OIL

We regret that we are unable to accommodate customers with nut allergy / intolerance. This is because all our dishes may contain traces of nut due to the spices we use from various suppliers around the world where there may not be strict nut handling procedures. We are therefore unable to advise that any dish is completely nut free. There could be accidental cross-contamination from cooking oils, utensils or nut particles since we do not operate in a surgical environment.

We are therefore unable to accept liability as a result of this.

WELCOME TO NINE DRAGONS

The name Kowloon is made up of two Chinese words, Gau, meaning NINE, and Lung, meaning DRAGONS. Legend states a dragon possessing good fortune inhabits every mountain in Hong Kong. Dragons descend to the harbour at dawn to bathe and return at dusk to drink. Emperor Ping (Sung Dynasty ruler of Hong Kong eight centuries ago), surveying Kowloon one day counted eight mountain peaks. He was reminded rather quickly that as an emperor, he carried the spirit of a dragon and thus, there were nine dragons inhabiting Kowloon. Kowloon from that day forward has been known as "NINE DRAGONS".
